

“Reassessing and Reconfiguring North-South and East-West relations in a changing landscape”

Centre for Cross Border Studies’ 21st Annual Conference

Friday 25th September 2020, Online

10.00am	Welcome – Dr Helen Johnston, Chair, Centre for Cross Border Studies
10.10am	Opening Remarks – Dr Anthony Soares, Director, Centre for Cross Border Studies
10.20am	Keynote – Julian Smith MP Moderated by Maureen O’Reilly, Centre for Cross Border Studies
11.00am	Virtual coffee break
11.20am	The Protocol on Ireland and Northern Ireland – Speaker to be announced
11.40am	Governance, Divergence, Convergence: Implementing the Protocol and UK-wide frameworks Chair: Michael D’Arcy, Centre for Cross Border Studies Professor Katy Hayward, Queen’s University Belfast Federico Fabbrini, Dublin City University Allie Renison, Institute of Directors David Henig, European Centre for International Political Economy
1.00pm	Lunch
2.00pm	Launch of CCBS Journal – Dr Anthony Soares, Director, Centre for Cross Border Studies
2.10pm	Responding to COVID-19 on the island of Ireland, Professor Deirdre Heenan, Ulster University
2.50pm	Healthy co-dependencies: Coordination across borders in response to COVID-19 and beyond Brexit Chair: Teresa O’Doherty, Centre for Cross Border Studies Martin Unfried ITEM, Maastricht University Damien McCallion, Cooperation And Working Together Joanne Morgan, Community Development and Health Network Michael Tomlinson, Queen’s University Belfast

4.20pm

Close